Invitation to Join a Drive-By Parade for
JACK WHITE’S 99TH BIRTHDAY!!

DATE: Saturday, August 22, 2020
TIME: 1:00 PM
RAIN DATE: Sunday, August 23

Please consider joining Jack’s family and friends in a drive-by parade to celebrate his 99th birthday. See the map on the other side of this flier for the parade route. Because of COVID, we ask you not to congregate at Jack’s house; however, please join the parade in your car. The Washington Scottish Pipe Band and the Vienna Fire Department will participate in the parade.

If the parade is canceled because of rain, we will have it the following day (8/23), same time.

Any questions, please contact Tom White at thwhite902@gmail.com

Jack is a WWII veteran who served in the China-India-Burma theater. A graduate of Georgetown and Harvard, he spent most of his career overseas in the foreign service as a diplomat with his wife, Dagmar, and two children, Sandra and Tom. The family returned to the United States in 1973 and Jack and Dagmar have lived in the Lawyers North development for almost 50 years.
PARADE ROUTE

We will start from the vehicle staging area at 1:00 on Saturday, August 22 on Loch Lomond Drive according to the red arrows in the map below. Feel free to decorate your car if you like. Loud Happy Birthday wishes and honking are encouraged when you get to Jack’s house at Firth Court.

Please stay inside your cars since we are following CDC guidelines for social distancing during the COVID pandemic.
